AITUTAKI DISCOVERY SAFARI SSS

CKAIT50 • 3h30

During this tour, you will visit ancient sacred grounds, or marae, such as Are Mango, where ancient rituals and sacrifices were performed, and learn how ancient Polynesian warriors defended their island with the help of supernatural beings. Depart from the pier and head toward the coastal village of Nikaupara. Stop briefly at Vainamu, a freshwater pond once used as a gathering place by the young people of the island. Continue along to the inland village of Tautu, stopping at the ancient temple grounds of Are Mango and the Poatu o Rae - the ancient throne of Rae, reputed to have been the strongest man on Aitutaki. Your guide will tell of his legends, such as tales of how warriors of old voyaged long distances to experience the music and drums of the Are Karioi - the House of Entertainment where the «Yuppies» of Polynesian gathered for what was reported a marathon of dancing and courtship. After a short ride through plantations, your tour will head toward the top of Mount Piraki where you will see some of the best views of the coastal village of Amuri and Arutanga. There, you will also view the remains of a World War II bunker built by the Americans during their time on the island. From Piraki, you will head to the highest peak on the island, Maunga Pu. The ride to the very top is exhilarating, and the view that awaits you there is breathtaking: a panoramic view of the island and its magnificent lagoon. This tour is more than just a means of reaching the top of Aitutaki's highest mountain without hard work, however. It is an opportunity to get to some of Aitutaki's best kept secret spots. Even for locals living on Aitutaki, places like the Poatu o Rae (the rock of Rae) and the Marae Are Mango (the house of Sharks) are places they hear about but never actually visit. Yet, they are the places that molded what Aitutaki is today. Following your tour, you will be transferred back to the pier.

Some sites are difficult to get to but well worth the effort. Guests are requested to wear comfortable walking shoes, protection from the sun and to bring insect repellent.

CIRCLE ISLAND TOUR SS

CKAIT51 • 2h30

From the pier, your around-the-island drive will take you past several of the island's villages. You will visit a marae (sacred Polynesian temple grounds) site. Pass through plantations of various crops grown here on Aitutaki. Learn about the island's myths and legends while taking in its beautiful scenery. Aitutaki has a unique geographical make-up - the island is a volcanic atoll with the typical volcanic peaks in the center of the island with the encircling coral reef ringed by the offshore islands (motus) and the lagoon in the center. The Circle Island Tour is a great way to see the island and meet the locals. Visit the inland villages of Tautu Vaipae and Vaipeka, drive along the coast and see the remnants of the Copra Production Facility, and see how the people of this tiny idyllic island live. There will be plenty of opportunities to meet the locals and take photographs along the way. Finally, you will get back to the pier.

LAGOON CRUISE WITH BEACH BREAK 🌊🌊🌊

Aitutaki's deep blue lagoon is considered to be one of the most beautiful lagoons in the world. Part volcanic and part atoll, the island's geographical structure makes this lagoon unique. This tour will give you the opportunity to experience the best Aitutaki has to offer in the short time available during your visit. You will board your boat (types and sizes vary) and cruise through the lagoon, visiting offshore motus. At One Foot Island, you will stop for a lunch of barbecued fish, salads, and fresh fruit. After lunch, enjoy approximately 2 hours to relax or snorkel.

We recommend you wear your swimsuit under a cover up and reef shoes, protect yourself from the sun, and bring snorkeling equipment and a towel from the ship. This boat tour involves a wet landing. There is a cash bar on the island for those who wish to purchase beverages. Guests wishing to obtain a One Foot Island stamp should bring their passports with them. There is a fee of USD $2 for the stamp.

SNORKELLING TOUR 🌊🌊

CKAIT53 • 2h

You will board small boats each seating 10 guests and travel to Motu Maina where you can snorkel and those that wish would have the option of visiting the motu. It takes approximately 15 minutes to travel each way, as the boats are very fast. This area has beautiful giant clams and is a marine reserve and is a nesting area of the red-tailed tropic birds. You will return to your ship at the end of the visit.

We recommend you wear your swimsuit under a cover up, sunscreen, a hat, sunglasses and bring fins, snorkels, and towels from the ship. You should also wear reef shoes for swimming. This tour involves a wet landing. There are no rest room stops on this tour.

ATUONA TO TAAOA ●●●

PFAUQ50 • 3h30

Discover the ancient tribes of the Taaoa Valley during this memorable journey to their archaeological ruins. Depart the pier for the ride to Taaoa, located approximately 7 miles southwest of Atuona on the coastal road. The Tiu, ancestors of most of the Hivaean tribes, and several other tribes once lived in the Taaoa Valley. Their archaeological ruins can be reached by off-road vehicle or on foot. During your ride, you will visit the Upeke Ceremonial Centre, which comprises house platforms, a tohua (tribal ceremonial center), public and sacred marae (archaeological ruins), and storage pits of breadfruit paste for feasts. The tohua was restored for the Third Festival of the Marquesas in 1991. The remaining area is in the same state in which archaeologist Ralph Linton found it in 1920. Among the objects you might see is a tiki measuring 4 feet by 5 feet, with the eyes, part of the right arm, and the right ear carved in bas relief. According to Linton, this stone was an altar stone on which sacrificed victims were placed after being killed at the tohua and carried up to the marae. Directly below the platform is an irregular round head carved from a porous black volcanic stone (which may have been moved from its original position). On another platform in the tohua section, you can see a row of worked ke'etu stone slabs. One of them has some carved lines; the design is very difficult to see in sunlight. Locals say it is a whale or canoe, but it is actually a tiki face carved in bas relief. Following your visit, you will re-board your off-road vehicle for the return ride to the pier.

*Les routes empruntées pour cette excursions sont assez cahoteuses et l'accès au site se fait par un sentier de pierres glissantes et de hautes marches. Cette excursion est déconseillée aux personnes souffrant de problèmes de dos ou de nuque. Chaque véhicule peut transporter quatre passagers. Ceux qui voyagent en famille ou entre amis sont invités à contacter le bureau des excursions afin d'être dans le même véhicule. ## CULTURAL VILLAGE & FIREWALKING SHOW ●●●

FJBEQ50 • 3h30

Legend has it that over 500 years ago the men of Beqa Island were given the gift of being able to walk on fire by an eel in exchange for its life. Today, the descendants of these warriors carry on the tradition, observing the same strict rules of tabu as the ancestors. Men are chosen as representatives from different villages. Ten days prior to the ceremony, they segregate themselves from females and are not allowed to eat coconut. The fire pit is dug out 12 to 15 feet in diameter and 3 to 4 feet deep. Large river stones are then collected and placed in the pit, filling it up. Six to eight hours before the ceremony a log fire is built over the top of the stones, heating them up. The Fire walkers are led to the arena accompanied by dances and chants. Leaves and vines are grazed across the stones to prepare the pit. The men then proceed to walk across the stones in a few different phases. Finally, a bundle of grass is thrown onto the pit and the group huddles in the centre while chanting a song. Bands around the ankle of each participant, which are made of tree ferns that do not burn, are thrown into the pit. The pit is finally covered with earth, and days later, the ankle bands are recovered and ground up, mixed with water, and eaten by the Fire walkers.

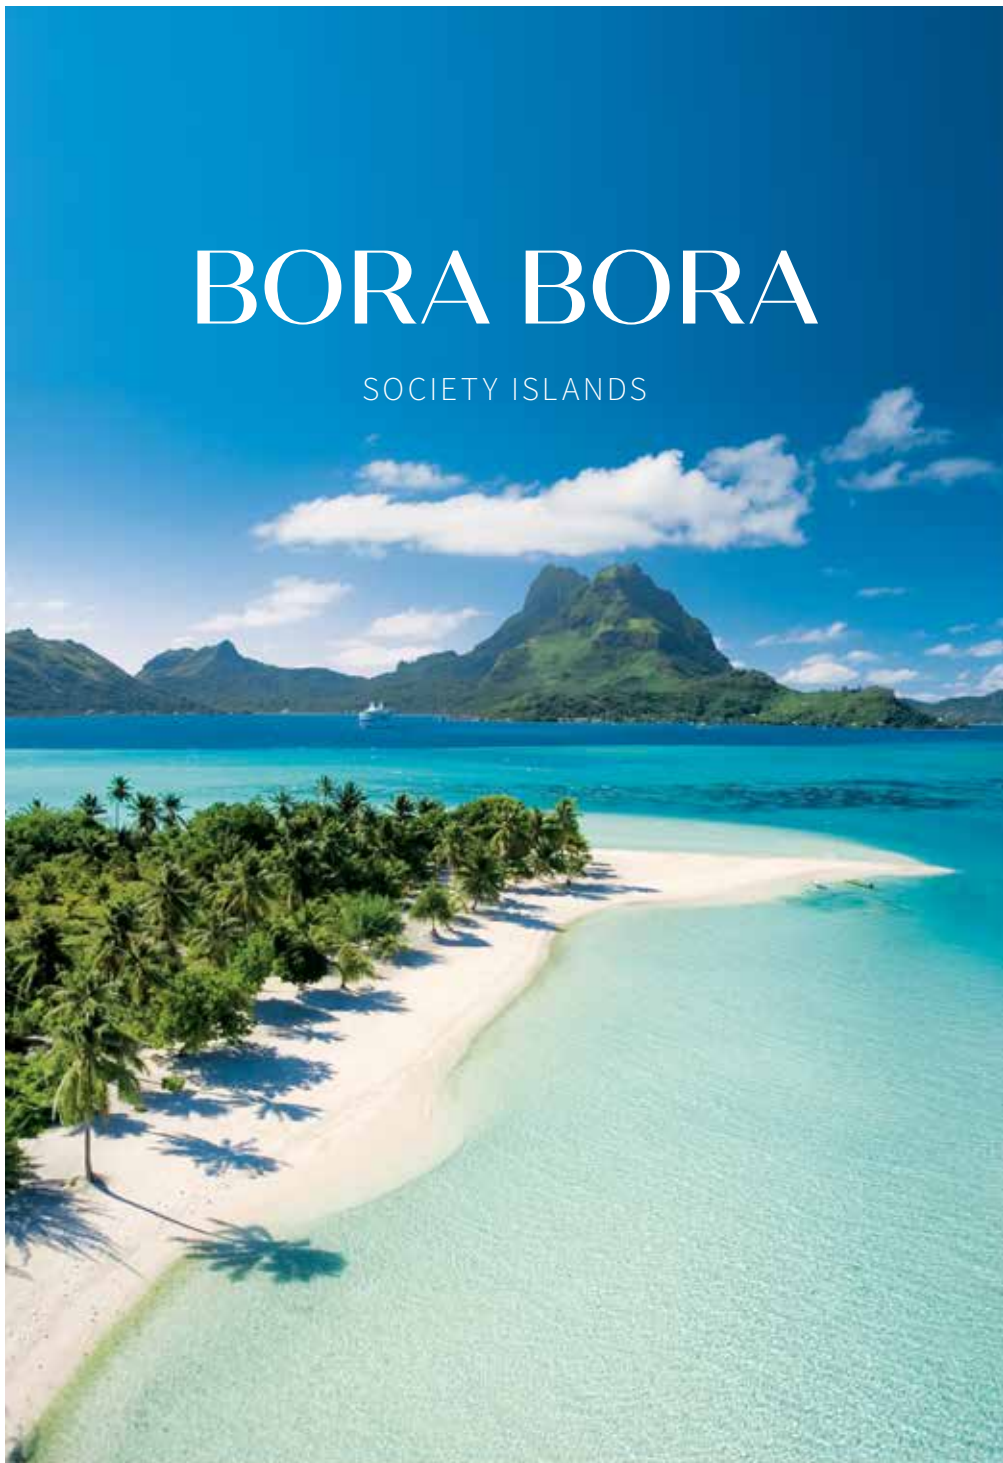

A tender boat will transfer you from the ship to the beach on Beqa Island. From the beach landing area, you will walk approximately 20-25 minutes to the village along an uneven, rough dirt path. Upon your arrival in the village, you will be greeted and welcomed by the fearsome Fijian warriors in traditional costumes. Villagers serenade and escort you to the village green where a traditional kava ceremony will take place. You will then be seated in a covered area to watch the ceremony and the Meke, a special dance performed by the dancers normally only for their Paramount Chief. The highlight of the village visit is the Fire walking! After all the excitement, you will walk back to the beach for your transfer back to the ship.

It is mandatory for guests to wear long pants and long-sleeve shirts. No guest will be allowed on the tour without covered arms and legs. Not suitable for guests with mobility and walking difficulties.

OMOA PETROGLYPHS WALK SS

PFOM050 • 3h

Set in a luscious native forest within a picturesque valley is an ancient ceremonial site where Marquesans prayed to their gods to provide abundant water for their crops. Trekking up to the site you will pass an old chief's paepae upon which is a small tiki carved in the famous ke'etu stone of the islands. Ascending inland you will see a number of sites whose functions will be explained to you by your on-board lecturer in anthropology and archaeology, Mark Eddowes. Finally, you will arrive on the crest of a ridge featuring important petroglyphs, or rock art. The images depict anthropomorphic images of men, concentric circle eyes of magical tikis and even an ancient sailing canoe. However, the most impressive petroglyph and one of the largest in the Marquesas is that of the famous paooa, which looks like a huge tuna fish, carved into the rock. See also the grinding, polishing and sharpening stones used in ancestral working of adzes and other tools. Enjoy the magnificent scenery surrounding the site as sharp mountain peaks pierce the sky. This excursion provides a wonderful chance to visit the interior of Fatu Hiva's beautiful Omoa Valley.

The hike is medium to difficult and involves uphill walking in hot and humid conditions. Participants should be physically fit, carry a bottle of water and wear a hat. Sturdy footwear appropriate to trekking is recommended.

SCENIC DRIVE TO HANAVAVE SS

PFOM051 • 3h30

Fatu Hiva, the most remote island of the inhabited Marquesan islands offers green and lush vegetation with sheer, rocky landscapes. There are only two villages on the island connected by one road (17 km). The scenic 4x4 ride from Omoa to Hanavave offers numerous photo opportunities over dramatic landscapes, coastline and deep gorges and valleys. On arrival in Hanavave you will have some free time to stretch your legs and explore the village and take more photos of one of the most picturesque locations in the Marquesas, the iconic Bay of Virgins. The bay was named by Catholic missionaries, who said that the phallic shaped stone outcrops were formed as veiled virgins.

As this tour involves rough off-road driving, it is not recommended for guests with back and/or neck problems, who suffer from motion sickness or vertigo or women who are pregnant. This tour involves very little walking. Guests are encouraged to wear insect repellent to ward off the small beach mosquitoes (nonos). Each vehicle will accommodate four guests. The drivers are not guides, and their command of the English language is very limited.

SAVUSAVU SIGHTSEEING SSS

FJSVU50 • 4h

Your first stop on this tour will be just outside of town at the factory of Copra Millers of Fiji - the leading manufacturer of coconut oil in Fiji. Witness the processing of Virgin coconut oil which is extracted from the coconut flesh with the minimal amount of processing i.e. no high heat or pressure and no harsh chemical solvents, bleaching agents, etc. The oil is completely unrefined to ensure it retains all the natural goodness of the coconut itself. There is a huge demand for coconut oil overseas. Malaysia and Taiwan are Fiji's biggest markets. Re-board the coach and enjoy a leisurely scenic drive along the coastal picturesque Hibiscus Highway. En route, pass the renowned Namale Resort (owned by Anthony Robbins - motivational guru) and Oneva Estate, once a prosperous copra plantation which has now been developed into a residential subdivision and is home to many expatriate retirees. Pass coastal beaches and old coconut plantations before arriving at Vatudamu Community Hall for entertainment and refreshments by the local people. Retrace your journey and return to Savusavu Town to visit the bubbling hot springs where locals cook their food wrapped in little cloth bundles or sacks. Return to the Copra Shed Marina to board the tender for transport back to the ship.

VISIT OF TAIPIVAI VALLEY

PFTAI50 • 4h

Nuku Hiva's spectacular beauty is yours to discover during this off-road adventure in the Taipivai Valley. Depart the pier for the ride to the Taipivai Valley, one of the richest archaeological sites in the Marquesas Islands. The Taipivai Valley is a location made famous by the American writer and former sailor, Herman Melville (1819-1891), who deserted his ship and hid in this valley. Captured by indigenous natives, he lived in the Taipivai Valley for three weeks, a period during which he observed their way of life. This experience was the inspiration for his first novel. On the way to the Taipivai Valley, you will ride through the island's interior along a steep trail lined with lush flora and vegetation, then traverse exquisite mountain terrain. Along the way, you will enjoy many opportunities to take magnificent photographs, as you stop several times to take in spectacular vistas of the coastline, bays, and valleys. At one particular stop, you will see your ship anchored in the Bay of Taihoae. Next, you will drive through Taipivai's small agricultural villages, then proceed to a long stretch of beach at the end of the village. Here, you will stop again to admire splendid vistas of the valley and surrounding mountains. Following your visit, you will re-board your off-road vehicle for the return ride to the pier.

As this tour involves travel over rough, uneven terrain, it is not recommended for guests with back and/or neck problems. The tour involves very little walking. Guests are encouraged to wear insect repellent or coconut oil for the skin (monoi) to ward off small beach mosquitoes (nonos). Pricing listed is per person. Space is limited to a maximum of 4 guests per vehicle. It is recommended that families and friends wishing to ride together contact the Travel Concierge Desk aboard ship in order to be assigned the same vehicle. Although the drivers used are the best available, they are not guides, and their command of English is poor. Your patience and understanding are greatly appreciated.

A woman in traditional Tongan attire is shown in profile, performing a dance. She wears a black and white patterned top with a woven skirt and a large, ornate headdress. Her arms are extended forward, and she is wearing multiple black and white patterned wristbands. The background is blurred, showing other dancers in similar attire.

FAQ – QUESTIONS & ANSWERS ON LE PAUL GAUGUIN EXCURSIONS

Q: How do I choose my diving excursion/tour?

A: Before your cruise, carefully read the descriptions of all excursions and choose the ones that interest you most, especially those at your diving level. During your cruise, the excursion manager will keep you informed of any program updates. The Dive Desk will answer all your questions about diving.

Q: Can I participate in more than one excursion/tour per port visited?

A: Yes. If you would like to participate in several excursions on the same day, make your preferences known on the booking form. The Excursion Desk will recommend the best departure times, with an interval of at least 30min between each excursion. Please feel free to indicate your order of preference. Many tours have a limited number of participants, or multiple departure times throughout the day.

NOTE:

- Excursion duration times do not take transit into account.
- Depending on the excursions chosen, it may not be possible to do two on the same day.
- If you organize a port trip yourself, or decide to leave an organized excursion, we won't be able to know what you're doing or where you are. It's imperative to allow sufficient time to return to the ship before its departure.

Q: Will I miss any meals if I take an excursion/tour?

A: During a stopover, meal times are adjusted according to the outings and returns of excursions and diving trips. Some excursions may not be compatible with regular meal times. If that's the case, room service is still an option.

Q: Are tours canceled due to bad weather?

A: Local providers carefully monitor the weather. If the conditions do not meet all the security criteria, tours may be canceled. If a provider cancels an excursion due to weather, you'll be fully refunded.

Q: Do the excursions go on in the event of rain?

A: Even though we all prefer outings in good weather, it sometimes rains in French Polynesia. Tours are not canceled in the event of rain, and tickets are non-refundable if hosts prefer not to participate. Reimbursement of excursion tickets is only possible if the tour operator is the cause for cancellation, because the conditions do not meet all the safety criteria.

Q: How will I know if an excursion is unavailable because it's full?

A: Requests will be processed in order of receipt. If the excursion of your choice is not available, your name will be added to a waiting list, and you will receive instructions with your tickets. Please contact the Tour Desk immediately if you have not received your tickets, or if you will not be able to participate in the booked tour. Due to limitations in transport or other vessels in the port, most tours have a limited number of participants. The Tour Desk can offer other similar tours if your first choice is not available. If you would like to go on a diving trip, please consult the Dive Desk.

Q: How do I pay for my excursions/tours?

A: The excursions/tours will be billed to your account on board the ship, and added to the final bill of your expenses.

Q: Can I cancel a purchased excursion?

A: If you would like to cancel an excursion, please bring your tickets to the Tour Desk before the closing date. The closing dates will be displayed on board, on the reservation forms. If you cancel an excursion or private tour after the closing date, you'll be charged a cancellation fee. Unused excursion tickets are not refundable.

Q: Are there any age restrictions?

A: Unless specified in the tour description, there is no minimum age for children accompanied by a parent or responsible adult. Unaccompanied children must be at least 18 years old. Some excursions offer reduced prices for children.

Q: Are there any other factors that may affect the excursions?

A: Le Paul Gauguin vessel reserves the right to cancel an excursion, limit its number of participants or modify its parameters, for any excursion/tour where the vessel deems it preferable for the comfort or safety of some participants.

Q: Is snorkeling equipment provided for snorkeling trips?

A: No. Please equip yourself with snorkeling equipment (mask, snorkel, fins, bag) at Le Paul Gauguin Marina before the excursion, or bring your own equipment. Some tour operators offer a limited number of masks and snorkels, but generally do not have fins. Please note that with the current pandemic context, snorkeling equipment can no longer be loaned to the marina. We recommend that you bring your own equipment or purchase some on board the ship before your excursions.

Q: Is scuba gear provided for scuba diving trips?

A: Yes, you'll be provided with all the necessary equipment: bottle, mask, snorkel, fins, wetsuit (shorty), Stab, regulator, manometer, depth gauge and weights.

Q: Can I snorkel without taking an excursion?

A: Yes, you can snorkel from our private beaches. Remember to pick up your snorkeling equipment at Le Paul Gauguin Marina before heading to the beach. When snorkeling is not permitted, you can go to the Marina for kayaking or paddle boarding.

SCUBA DIVING COURSES

We offer courses for beginners and advanced divers. Try scuba diving for the first time with the Discovery Program, or sign up for a training program near you before completing your training during your cruise. All the dive trips organized by Le Paul Gauguin are guided by a certified professional instructor, and include all necessary equipment: bottle, mask, snorkel, fins, wetsuit (shorty), Stab, regulator, manometer, depth gauge and weights.

ALREADY CERTIFIED | If you're already a certified diver, please make yourself known to the Marina Manager at the Dive Office on the first day of the cruise. We look forward to offering you superb dives with Le Paul Gauguin in the waters of French Polynesia.

NOT CERTIFIED | If you're not yet a certified diver but have always dreamed of being one, take this opportunity to learn to dive in the waters of French Polynesia. Try scuba diving for the first time with the Discovery program. The Discovery Diving program is a simple, safe and rewarding experience for all participants. Most of those who enter the world of diving for the first time will want to return. You can find out more at the Dive Desk, where you can sign up for courses or certified dives.

PREREQUISITES | All guests wishing to dive from Le Paul Gauguin must provide proof of certification and a dive log, or register for a diving course. If you would like to participate, you'll need to complete a diving-specific medical form on board the vessel, as well as a disclaimer. This medical form must be completed and validated before any dive. We reserve the right to ask divers who have not dived for more than twelve months and cannot provide proof of a certified abseil course since their last dive, to kindly participate in the on-board course prior to diving in open water. This refresher course costs $30. Divers with a Junior Diver certification may not be able to participate in all dives due to the limitations of this certification. The minimum age to participate in a diving program is 10 years old, and children must be accompanied by a parent at all times.

RESTRICTIONS | For safety reasons, participants must be in good physical condition and not extremely overweight. In some situations, diving is a tough sport. Your respiratory and circulatory systems should be healthy. All respiratory organs must be in good health. People with vascular disease, a cold or shortness of breath, epilepsy, with a serious medical problem or under the influence of alcohol or other drugs should not dive. If you have asthma, heart disease or any other medical condition, or if you take medication regularly, you should consult your doctor and an instructor before participating in a dive. Women who are pregnant or want to become pregnant should not dive.

PLEASE NOTE: All diving courses have a minimum and maximum number of participants per instructor. If the number of participants exceeds this limit, dives may be provided by a contractor. Diving certifications will only be awarded if all the necessary skills are acquired. Depending on one's progress, it may be necessary to participate in additional training in order to achieve certification. For more information on diving and diving lessons, visit www.padi.com.

FAQ COURSES & CERTIFICATION

R : Q: How do I register for a diving course?

A: Course registration must be done at the Diving Desk, on board the vessel. These programs cannot be booked before the start of the cruise.

Q: How long does it take to become a certified diver?

A: PADI courses are based on your performance; you earn your certification when you show that you've mastered the necessary skills and knowledge. As some learn faster than others, length of time may vary. For example, the PADI Open Water Diving course can be done in five to six sessions, spread over a duration of 3 days to 6 weeks.

Q: What's the minimum age for a diving certification?

A: The minimum age to be certified as a Junior Open Water Diver is 10 years old. 10 and 11 year old Junior Open Water Divers must dive with a parent, certified supervisor or PADI Professional, to a depth of 12 meters. 12-14 year olds must dive with a certified adult. At the age of 15, Junior Certification becomes Open Water Diver Certification.

Q: Do you have to be an excellent swimmer to be certified as an open water diver?

A: No. You have to know how to swim, and be comfortable in the water. You should be able to swim for about 200 meters without stopping, regardless of the weather and type of swim, or 300 meters with a mask, fins and a snorkel. You should also be able to swim in place/float for 10 minutes.

Q: My ears hurt when I dive to the bottom of a swimming pool. Will my ears hurt when diving too?

A: Your ears hurt from the pressure of the water on your eardrums. In scuba diving lessons, you'll learn simple techniques for balancing your ears with surrounding pressure, much like what you do on an airplane when landing.

Q: I wear contacts. Is that a problem?

A: No. Wearing soft lenses is not a problem when diving. If you wear hard lenses, take gas-permeable lenses for diving. Please consult your eye doctor for more information. Another option would be to incorporate prescribed lenses into your mask. For more information on this, contact a PADI Professional.

Q: How long do you have to wait to get on a plane after diving?

A: The medical diving community offers the following recommendations before you fly, depending on whether you're using the RDP, another chart, or a dive computer: For dives without a decompression limit:

- Single dive - It's recommended to wait 12 hours before boarding a plane
- Repeated dives and/or over several days - It's recommended to wait 18 hours before boarding a plane
- Dives requiring decompression stops - It's recommended to wait 18 hours

Despite the decompression charts, on-board computers and advice not to fly, decompression sickness can occur. These instructions represent the best chances known to date for avoiding these accidents and providing safe dives for virtually all divers. In the event of special circumstances or particular physical conditions, decompression sickness can sometimes occur despite these recommendations.

Q: I'm already a PADI Certified Diver, but have lost my certification card. Can I get another one, and how long will it take?

A: You can have a lost card replaced at a PADI dive center near you, or you can visit the "Replace my card" section at www.PADI.com. Replacing a certification card takes around two weeks, so if you dive before that ask your PADI dive centers to contact PADI. PADI will then send your certification information directly to you. If you were certified after 1984 by PADI Asia-Pacific, PADI Americas, PADI Canada, PADI International or PADI Europe, we'll be able to verify your status online, for a small fee.

If an excursion is not available, you'll be placed on a waiting list. Once on board, we encourage you to contact the Tour Desk to check the status of your registration. However, in the case of a maximum number of participants reached, PONANT reserves the right to no longer accept your registration. Please attend the briefings organized on board by the Tour Desk for an overview of the excursions offered. Unless stated otherwise in the brochure, diving lessons cannot be booked before the cruise. To register for a diving course, visit the Dive Desk on board.

CANCELLATIONS AND REFUNDS

The deadline date for cancelling excursions is indicated on the excursion ticket. Once this date has passed, excursions cannot be cancelled or refunded. Unused tickets and voluntary cancellations due to adverse weather conditions are not refundable. Depending on the terms of their travel insurance, passengers may be able to request a refund payment from their insurer if the request is accompanied by a medical certificate.

PAYMENT

Unless otherwise indicated in the cruise programme, excursions are sold and paid onboard, in US dollars.

DEPARTURE TIMES

Departure times will be confirmed onboard and printed on your excursion/trip ticket. PONANT reserves the right to alter excursion times and itineraries where events or weather conditions dictate. The excursion prices, programmes and itineraries indicated in this brochure are provided for indicative purposes only and may be altered without prior notice.

RESPONSIBILITY

For the purposes of organising and delivering transport, transfers, catering, excursions and all other services provided on land, PONANT uses various independent service providers whose representatives are not PONANT employees, with whom PONANT must not be confused, and which retain, with respect to passengers, responsibilities specific to their business activities, in accordance with the terms of the regulations applicable to them. As a consequence, PONANT cannot be held responsible, and the passenger cannot claim any compensation or damages, for any cancellation, delay, injury, change of scheduled time or itinerary, or death or damage to property or the person, even where PONANT makes the bookings or bills the passenger for services arranged and organised in conjunction with said service providers.

CANCELLED EXCURSIONS

In case of cancellation of an excursion for technical reasons or force majeure, or due to a failure to reach the minimum number of participants, the customer will not be billed, but nor will they be entitled to claim any compensation or damages. PONANT reserves the right to cancel an excursion, to limit the number of participants taking part in it or to make changes to it if PONANT or its tour operator judges this to be the preferable option for the comfort or the safety of participants. Excursions are subject to a minimum number of participants and PONANT reserves the right to cancel an excursion due to an insufficient number of people taking part.

GUIDES

You will be accompanied on excursions by local guides who will be able to provide information and answer your questions.

PERSONS WITH REDUCED MOBILITY

The excursions are undertaken using equipment not specifically adapted for persons with reduced mobility.

TIPS

The giving of tips for various services provided during an excursion or a diving trip is a personal matter left to your own discretion. In certain countries, local guides will often expect a small tip if you are satisfied with the services provided. Where meals are included in the excursion, tips will also be included in the excursion price.

SHOPPING

Some coastal excursions have time set aside for shopping specified in the description. Others may provide time for shopping at the end of the excursion. Some shops and street vendors do not accept payments by card. If you plan to make any purchases, please ensure you have cash with you. The only currencies accepted are US dollars and CFP Francs.
